ARTICLE I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1. Name of Organization

The name of the organization shall be the Emerald Forest Homeowners Association hereafter referred to as EFHOA.

Section 2. Legal Status

The EFHOA is an assumed name of the Emerald Forest Community Improvement Association as established in the Deed Restrictions for Emerald Forest, Phase I, College Station, Texas, recorded 12/6/78, the State of Texas, County of Brazos.

The ~~Deed Restrictions~~Restrictive Covenants shall be used as the governing documents in the use of the land in Emerald Forest. If any differences exist between the ~~Deed Restrictions~~Restrictive Covenants and this document, the ~~Deed Restrictions~~Restrictive Covenants shall ~~apply~~ prevail.

Section 3. Office Location

EFHOA shall maintain an office located at 8500 Appomattox in the recreational area of the subdivision or at such other location within Bryan or College Station, Texas as determined appropriate by the Board of Directors.

~~Section 4. Membership Subject to Bylaws~~

~~All memberships shall be subject to all of the Bylaws as adopted, or hereafter adopted, and such Bylaws shall be considered as an essential part of the contract of membership by the Association and each member.~~

Section 45. Memberships.

All property owners are members of EFHOA. M~~m~~emberships shall ~~be considered family memberships and~~ shall entitle the household to ~~the~~ use ~~and enjoyment of~~ the recreational facilities. The membership of ~~the Association~~EFHOA shall be limited to the owners of lots in said subdivision. No family, partnership, LLC, or other entity may hold more than one membership from an individual property (one property is one membership) . An a~~A~~ctive member shall be a dues paying member Commented [LA1]: Section 4 was moved after Section 5 because it makes since to define Membership before Membership subject to Bylaws.

Commented [LA2]: [TPC 209.0059 (a) "A provision in a dedicatory instrument that would disqualify a property owner from voting in a property owners' association election of board members or on any matter concerning the rights or responsibilities of the owner is void."

in good standing with ~~the Association~~EFHOA. An i~~I~~nactive member shall be a member whose membership has been suspended by action of the Board of Directors. Inactive members shall not be entitled to use of ~~the Association~~EFHOA facilities, ~~nor to vote in any elections,~~ nor eligible to serve ~~as an Officer or Director~~ in an official capacity on behalf of ~~the Association~~EFHOA, but can vote in any election and on matters regarding the rights and responsibilities of property owners.

Section 5. Membership Subject to Bylaws

All memberships shall be subject to all ~~of~~ the Bylaws as adopted, or hereafter adopted, and such Bylaws shall be considered as an essential part of the contract of membership ~~by the Association~~ between EFHOA and each member.

Section 6. Suspension of Membership

The Board of Directors shall have the power to suspend any member ~~for conduct prejudicial to the interest of the organization and/or~~ for the non-payment of dues, upon affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the Board of Directors, in accordance with TPC-209.006 (or successor statute). Owners may request a hearing and are entitled to due process to cure the violation and avoid the fine or suspension. ~~Before any member may be suspended for such conduct, the Secretary shall notify the member in writing by registered mail to his last address listed with registered office of the Association that at a regular meeting of the Board of Directors, time and place of which meeting shall be set out in said notice, and which notice shall be mailed at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the meeting, the question of his or her suspension will be considered and acted upon, advising the member of the reason and opportunity to be present. If the member so notified does not appear at the appointed time and does not advise the Board in writing of his reason for not so appearing, the Board, at its discretion, may either continue the matter until the next regular meeting of the Board, or then and there proceed to act upon the matter. The Board of Directors will have the power to reinstate to active status any suspended membership after satisfying the Board of Directors' written requirements.~~

Section 7. Transfer of Memberships

All memberships shall be transferred upon sale of property. ~~No family may own more than one membership.~~

Section 8. Establishment and Payment of Annual Dues Assessment

A. The Board of Directors shall have authority to establish the annual dues to be paid each year by the members provided, however, ~~that~~ dues shall not be increased more than 10% per year without a vote of the members as specified in the Restrictive Covenants. The annual dues shall not exceed the sum of $~~4~~700 per year. ~~Increases in the Membership rates will be voted upon by the members in accordance with the Deed Restrictions.~~ Further, the Board shall have the authority to determine reasonable fees for any other services rendered or privileges granted by the Association.

B. Annual dues are payable January 1st and will be delinquent if not received by ~~the Treasurer~~ EFHOA or the designated management company by February 1st. If Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of EFHOA and to make a copy of relevant documents at the expense of EFHOA.

Section 4. Legal Representation
Any law firm retained by EFHOA shall represent EFHOA as an organization and shall not represent individual Board members or homeowners in their individual capacities. A majority of the full Board must authorize communications with legal counsel on behalf of the Association. Any vote will occur in a special or regular board meeting and recorded in the minutes of that meeting.

Section 5. Parliamentary Rules
Simple parliamentary procedure shall govern the conduct of EFHOA proceedings when not in conflict with Texas Law, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declarations, or these Bylaws.

ARTICLE ~~I~~X. INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. When Indemnification is Required, Permitted, and Prohibited

~~A.~~ EFHOA shall indemnify a Director, officer, or committee member who was, is, or is threatened to be named as a defendant or respondent in a claim or proceeding to the extent indemnification is consistent with the Texas Business Organizations Code Title 1 Chapter 8 (or its successor code).~~The Corporation shall indemnify a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation who was, is, or may be named defendant or respondent in any proceeding as a result of his or her actions or omission within the scope of his or her official capacity in the Corporation. For the purposes of this article, an agent includes one who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, partner, venturer, proprietor, trustee, partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise~~. However, ~~the Corporation~~EFHOA shall indemnify a person only if he or she acted in good faith and reasonably believed that the conduct was in ~~the Corporation~~EFHOA's best interests. EFHOA shall not indemnify any person for any costs, expenses, or liabilities incurred as a result of an action taken or omitted that the person knew was in violation of the laws of the State of Texas. ~~–~~In a case of criminal proceeding, the person may be indemnified only if he or she had no reasonable cause or believe that the conduct was unlawful. ~~The~~ ~~Corporation~~EFHOA shall not indemnify a person who is found liable to ~~the Corporation~~EFHOA or is found liable to another on the basis of improperly receiving a personal benefit. A person is conclusively considered to have been found liable in relation to any claim, issue, or matter if the person has been adjudged liable by a court of competent jurisdiction and all appeals have been exhausted.

A report in writing shall be provided to members when an indemnification or advance of expenses takes place.

~~B. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or on a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not necessarily preclude indemnification by the Corporation.~~

~~C. The Corporation shall pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation in connection with the person's appearance as a witness or other participation in a proceeding involving or affecting the Corporation when the person is not a named defendant or respondent in the proceeding.~~

~~D. In addition to the situations otherwise described in this paragraph, the Corporation may indemnify a director, officer, committee member, employee, or agent of the Corporation to the extent permitted by law. However, the Corporation shall not indemnify and person in any situation in which indemnification is prohibited by the terms of Section 1 above.~~

~~E. Before the final disposition of a proceeding, the Corporation may pay indemnification expenses permitted by the bylaws and authorized by the Corporation. However, the Corporation shall not pay indemnification expenses to a person before the final disposition of a proceeding if: the person is a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding brought by the Corporation; or the person is alleged to have improperly received a personal benefit or committed other willful or intentional misconduct.~~

~~F. If the Corporation may indemnify a person under the bylaws, the person may be indemnified against judgments, penalties, including excise and similar taxes, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses (including attorney's fees) actually incurred in connection with the proceeding. However, if the proceeding was brought by or on behalf of the Corporation, the indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses actually incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding.~~

~~Section 2. Procedures Relating to Indemnification Payments~~

~~A. Before the Corporation may pay any indemnification expenses (including attorney's fees), the Corporation shall specifically determine that indemnification is permissible, authorize indemnification, and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable, except as provided in Section 2 (c), below. The Corporation may make these determinations and decisions by any one of the following procedures:~~

~~(i) Majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who, at the time of the vote, are not named defendants or respondents in the proceeding.~~

~~(ii) Determination by special legal counsel selected by the Board of Directors by vote as provided in paragraph Section 2 A (i) or 2 A (ii), or is such a quorum cannot be obtained and such committee cannot be established, by a majority vote of all directors.~~

~~B. The Corporation shall authorize indemnification and determine that expenses to be reimbursed are reasonable in the same manner that it determines whether indemnification is permissible. If the determination that indemnification is permissible is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and determination of reasonableness of expenses shall be made in the manner specified by Section 2 A (ii), above, governing the selection of special legal counsel. A provision contained in the articles o(incorporation, the bylaws, or a resolution of members or the Board of Directors that requires the indemnification permitted by Section 1, above, constitutes sufficient authorization of indemnification even though the provision may not have been adopted or authorized in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible.~~

~~C. The Corporation shall pay indemnification expenses before final disposition of a proceeding only after the Corporation determines that the facts then known would not preclude indemnification and the Corporation receives written affirmation and undertaking from the person to be indemnified. The determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification and authorization of payment shall be made in the same manner as a determination that indemnification is permissible under Section 2 A, above. The person's written affirmation shall state that he or she has met the standard of conduct necessary for indemnification under the bylaws. The written undertaking shall provide for repayment of the amount paid or reimbursed by the Corporation if it is ultimately determined that the person has not met the requirements for indemnification. The undertaking shall be an unlimited general obligation of the person, but it need not be secured and it may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.~~

ARTICLE XI. DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Dissolution.

The assets of ~~the Association~~EFHOA, after satisfaction of all legal claims against assets, shall be distributed in pro-rata shares to the Active members at the time of such dissolution, regardless of the reason for~~of~~ such dissolution. ~~The Association~~EFHOA has the right to sell and convey real property upon approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the voting members.
